ABOUT THE THEME

TULSA DISTRICTS

The character of a city is oftentimes defined by its entertainment and business districts. From local restaurants, bars and coffee shops, to our favorite shops, stores and retail establishments, the city's districts are what make Tulsa unique.

In addition to creating the cultural foundation for our residents and the region at large, these districts draw people together and offer opportunities for Tulsans to experience new things and new cultures. In doing so, they become one of the key components of our economic base, helping connect our city and ensure the financial viability of the City's operations.

This year we celebrate those special places across the city that define our everyday lives, and that help create a city that is vibrant, diverse and welcoming.
