

GET A BOOST

Restart Your Professional Career in the United States! Our free credential evaluation* program helps immigrants and refugees get back to work in their chosen fields.

Wondering if your education counts in the US?

Or thinking about continuing your studies here without having to start from scratch?

YOU'RE NOT ALONE!

The YWCA can help—at no cost. We offer re-credential evaluations for immigrants and assistance in finding employment. Whether it's recognizing your foreign education or finding ways to continue your studies, we've got you covered. Get in touch today!

**A credential evaluation reviews foreign-earned degrees, certificates, transcripts, and other official documents and provides clients with an equivalency report in English that translates the value of an individual's foreign-earned education into U.S. standards of coursework.*

YWCA Tulsa and the City of Tulsa have partnered up to assist immigrants with education and professional experiences from abroad in job placement in the Tulsa County area .

Want to learn how we can help?
Contact Stacy Banos @ (918) 229-5295
or sbanos@ywcatusla.org

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca
Tulsa

YWCA Tulsa is a partner agency of Tulsa Area United Way

Our Employment Specialist, Stacy Banos, is proficient in both English and Spanish to provide comprehensive assistance. In addition to these languages, we also offer support in Zomi, Ukrainian, Dari, and Pashto.

This project is supported, in part, by federal award number SLT-1498 awarded to the City of Tulsa by the U.S. Department of the Treasury.